Hail has done much damage to crops in Otter Tail county.

The next annual encampment of the G. A. R. will be held at Sauk Center.

A girl baby at Akron, Ohio, has her ears on the lower jaw near the mouth.

Detroit knows how to deal with the kind of men that "Reddy," was. The world is much better without them.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press takes the lead among all the dailies of the northwest. People who want the news appreciate this fact.

The Northern Pacific has opened a new station, called West Superior, four miles east of Duluth, between Duluth and Superior, for freight and passengers.

The Labor Echo says that a working-man's state constitution will be held at La Crosse, Wis., July 13, for the purpose of nominating a state ticket.

The yard masters of St. Paul have formed an association and one section of the constitution of the society declares that no saloon keeper or seller of intoxicating liquors can become a member.

Hon. George C. Waters, chairman of the Fifth district democratic committee, has not yet decided when he will call a meeting of the committee, but will not for some time yet. He favors a short, active campaign.

H. B. Morrison of Motley has a contract for getting out 150,000 railroad ties for the "Duluth & Manitoba" road. There are a good many ties being got out now and it looks as if some new road building was under contemplation.—Long Prairie Leader.

The ring which was stolen from Bishop Seidenbusch's residence in St. Cloud recently was recovered at P. F. Egan's jewelry store at St. Paul where it had been sold for old gold for $4.50. The party who sold it was a middle-aged man accompanied by two little girls.

Ten thousand tons of steel rails will soon be landed in Duluth for the Duluth & Manitoba railroad. This road is to be a branch of the Northern Pacific, and will be built northward from Wadena through Hubbard county and toward the northwestern part of the state.—Herald.

Arrangements have been made which the Northern Pacific and St. Paul Minneapolis & Manitoba railroads by which delegates to the Fifth district republican congressional convention to be held at Brainerd will be carried to Brainerd at half rates. Full fare going will be paid and they will be returned free.

The law requires that all persons holding tax certificates shall return them to the auditor ninety days before the time for the redemption expires in order that notice of redemption may be issued by the auditor to the person to whom the land is assessed. The tax for 1883 will expire ninety days from June 15, or on Sept. 15. Parties who haven't redeemed should do so and save cost of serving notice.

The circus fakir is abroad in the Northwest, and reports of his ravages are coming in from every quarter. The circus fakir is a villain, but there is consolation in the thought that nine cases out of ten his victims deserve to be robbed.

"He who runneth up against another man's game and seeketh, by putting in one piece of silver, to draw forth thirty, is a fool, and verily he shall be worked." As Cole's circus shows in Brainerd the 23rd of July it will be well to remember the above proverb.

The James river in Dakota is said to be the longest unnavigable stream in the world. A few days ago there arrived at the beautiful city of Jamestown, which is situated on this river, a man and family who rowed in a small boat the entire length of the river, from where it empties into the Missouri near Yankton. They averaged twenty-five miles a day and carried provisions and a tent. This is the first time a white man has ever made so long and continuous a journey on this river.

Republican County Convention.

The Crow Wing county republican convention met at the court house this afternoon at 3 o'clock. W. E. Seelye, chairman, read the call, and on temporary organization F. B. Thompson was elected chairman and J. N. Nevers, secretary, which was afterward made the permanent organization. A committee of five was appointed on credentials, also a committee of three on resolutions, and a committee of three on permanent organization. The committee on credentials reported the names of delegates which were adopted. On motion a formal ballot was taken on the election of four delegates to the Fifth district congressional convention which resulted in the election of W. W. Hartley, H. Spaulding, C. B. Sleeper, and N. McFadden. A resolution was introduced complimentary to Hon. Knute Nelson, and instructing the delegation for him, and which was adopted. On a formal ballot for seven delegate to the legislative district convention, the following names were elected: W. E. Seelye, J. J. Howe, Wm. Paine, N. W. Hartley, J. S. Gardner, N. H. Ingersoll and F. B. Thompson. This delegation was instructed for Leon E. Lum by the convention. Resolutions were also introduced complimentary to Senator C. B. Buckman.

On motion the following delegation was elected by acclamation from the Crow Wing County bar as delegates to the Eleventh District Judicial Convention and instructed for C. B. Sleeper for Judge: W. A. Fleming, G. S. Fernald, Leon E. Lum and J. B. Douglas.

A resolution was introduced and adopted giving the delegates power to fill any vacancy that might occur. A resolution instructing Republicans in this section to use all possible means to secure for W. W. Hartley a place on the State ticket, was also adopted by the convention.

The county republican central committee will be appointed by the chairman of the convention and the announcement will be made through these columns.

The District Judgeship.

There is a desire, which is general, not to have any political consideration enter into the nomination and election of a district judge. In view of this fact some of the prominent Democrats of Duluth having suggested that the Democrats be permitted their share of representation in the Brainerd judicial convention. For instance, Duluth is entitled to eight delegates. If two or three delegates would give their proxies to Democrats, the party here would support the nominee of the convention. If some arrangement of this kind could be made in every county in the district, the convention would be one representing both parties and only one set of candidates would be in the field for election. This would satisfy all concerned and there would be no campaign necessary. There ought to be no party division when a judge is to be elected and this plan would effectually prevent it.—Duluth Herald.

Commissioner Sparks has decided that the Northern Pacific railroad is not entitled to the lands situated in its ten mile indemnity limits because it failed to make a proper selection of its indemnity lands. The decision involves a strip of land ten miles wide across the continent which in Dakota is particularly valuable, and it is extremely doubtful if the Sparks view will be sustained. The immediate effect of the decision will be to cause a rush of emigration to the section thrown open to settlement. It awards forty acres of the Winona Dakota, townsites to John Waldron.

State Convention at Saint Paul.

Owing to the condition of the capital building, the State Convention of the Prohibition party, which was to have been held in the chamber of the House of Representatives, will assemble in Market Hall St. Paul, July 7 at 12 o'clock M. This is the first delegated convention of the party in this state and the number of counties which have elected delegates indicates the probability of a large attendance. All roads offer excursion rates both to delegates and visitors. Rev. Dr. A. Leonard, late Prohibition candidate for governor of Ohio, will be present, and with the aid of Messrs. Satterlee and Pinkham, will doubtless awaken some enthusiasm.

The somewhat celebrated case of the Rev. John Walton has at last come to an end. Walton was arrested in Wadena county charged with rape. He was found guilty, but the court granted a new trial. Counsel took a change of venue to Becker where it was taken up by the court on Wednesday and was dismissed on motion of the defense.—Fergus Falls Journal.

A Murderer Hung.

Detroit Minn., June 23.—This unusually peaceful community has been through the day at fever heat of excitement over the atrocious murder of its efficient and highly esteemed village marshal, John Convey. At about 1:30 there occurred a row between two noted gamblers and pimps for rival dives in front of the Masonic block in which revolvers were displayed. One William Kelleher, alias Big Red, fired a shot at his opponent, Frank Bennett, alias McCormick, which missed the man. Marshal Convey interfered to separate the combatants, when Kelleher with fatal aim, fired on him, shooting him instantly. The murderer fled, and the few witnesses of the deed aroused the village. Officers sent telegrams and riders in all directions to prevent his escape, but he was found about 4 o'clock asleep in the brush near his dive. He was promptly locked in jail and coroner Hanson summoned a jury as early as possible, but their investigation was continued into afternoon, when the verdict was reached. That John Convey came to his death by a pistol shot fired by William Kelleher with malice aforethought. Testimony was given that Kelleher had boasted of shooting five men before and that McCormick should be the sixth. Marshal Convey's remains were prepared for burial by W. A. Crosby undertaker, and at 7 this evening were borne to the depot by the Detroit fire company escorted by the Lake Side Cornet Band playing a funeral march followed by the village council and about 200 citizens. The indignation of all classes is at the highest pitch and fears of lynching are imminent.

LATER—"Reddy" who murdered officer Convey yesterday morning was lynched by infuriated citizens last night. About 10 o'clock about 500 men unmasked broke in a rear door of the jail. Then there was a rush into the corridor where the mob was most forcible met by Sheriff Finny and his deputy Geo. W. Taylor who made a desperate fight for the prisoner but the corridor door was in the meantime crushed in and the sheriff carried in bodily to the room next the jail apartment where the key to the outer doors were secured and an entrance effected. Matches were lit and the glaring eyes of the wretch within were plainly visible as he walked to and fro with a face bleached to a death pallor. He begged of the crowd to shoot him instead of putting the damned rope about his neck. At this time a cry arose from the mob that they did not have the right key to the cell and a raid was made on the sheriff and cell keys demanded but he said he didn't know where they were. Deputy Taylor was then caught in the hall and carried. Owing to his resistance he was forced down and all keys in his possession taken from him. The ones wanted being found the great doors pulled open and one of the party stepped into the cell and quickly placed a rope about the victim's neck and with a yell the rope was grabbed by about thirty men who led the prisoner at a terrible gait out of the building when a yell from 500 throats only frenzied the crowd the more, and with shrieks and cries the prisoner was taken to the front of his own place of abode and in a twinkling one of the men grabbed the end of the rope and climbed the tree placing it down to the crowd below who quickly gave it a pull and in a few seconds the body of Reddy, the noted gambler and murderer was hanging in the air. The rope was then fastened to the base of the large oak which he hung, and instantly shot after shot from large revolvers were fired into the lifeless carcass. The crowd then dispersed except those who went out to view the sight at three o'clock this morning. A house on the lake occupied by prostitutes was fired and no effort made to save it. The citizens propose to drive such characters out of town.

The somewhat celebrated case of the Rev. John Walton has at last come to an end. Walton was arrested in Wadena county charged with rape. He was found guilty, but the court granted a new trial. Counsel took a change of venue to Becker where it was taken up by the court on Wednesday and was dismissed on motion of the defense.—Fergus Falls Journal.

A Study of the Hoe.

Burdette: We do not believe that a hen scratches for a living. She scratches for exercise. If you don't believe it watch a well fed hen in her humble cage at the market. She will scratch on the sheet iron floor with all the vigor of a good fighter, and effect to find things to eat with all the innocent assumption of a man who slips on the ice, breaks both legs and his back, and tries to look as though he hadn't fallen down.

At the Commencement of St. Stephen's college New York, last week, George Peaks, of Detroit, Minn., stood highest in the class.

Railroad Rumors.

It is reported that C. F. Kindred has begun the construction of his road, the Brainerd & Northwestern in earnest and that work will be pushed rapidly ahead until snow flies. He evidently means business.—Thirteen Towns.

The proposed railroad from the line of the N. P. at a point three miles east of Hawley, to Red Lake Falls, will undoubtedly be completed during the present summer. Active work has been commenced during the past week and hundreds of men and teams will be grading upon the line within a few days. The new line will run directly north to Red Lake Falls, and when completed will undoubtedly be operated by the Northern Pacific company.—Detroit Record.

We learn from reliable authorities, that work on the Duluth and Leech Lake branch of the Manitoba R. R., which was discontinued last week for the purpose of putting the full force of men at work on the Peleean Rapid branch, in order to do of the Northern Pacific company, who are threatening to build in that vicinity—will shortly be built with increased vigor and the road pushed rapidly forward to this city.—Fosston Ex.

The Pioneer Press at Reduced Prices.

The Great Northwestern Daily Wheels into Line with Popular Press, but will fully maintain its High Standard.

The following, from a Pioneer Press editorial of June 19th, tells its own story, and it will be welcome story to many who have wanted the Pioneer Press, but who have felt that its price made the luxury too expensive.

Following the example of the leading New York and Chicago dailies, the price of the Pioneer Press, from this day forth, be reduced to ten cents per copy for the daily, and ten dollars per year for the daily and Sunday issues, with corresponding reduction for fractional parts of a year. This reduction is not made in response to any public demand or to any complaint of the subscribers of the Pioneer Press, but it is a recognition of the fact that it has stood alone in the Northwest in adhering to the higher price recently standard with all the great dailies. On the contrary, it is the unanimous testimony of the agents and circulation of the Pioneer Press that its great superiority over all other newspapers in its field is so manifest and so universally conceded that the question of price is never raised. No more can it be. But the Pioneer Press is not content to maintain its circulation unimpaired. By offering a paper vastly superior to any of its local competitors at the reduced price announced to-day, it is hoped to add many new subscribers to its already magnificent list. In common with the leading dailies of New York and Chicago, it recognizes the fact that this is an era of low prices, and it owes it to its large and generous constituency and to the entire public to furnish them the leading newspaper of the Northwest at the lowest possible price. It owes them the further duty, when required, the price of maintaining the high standard of the Pioneer Press. It will do more than this. It will furnish its readers with the best and most reliable news of the day, and it will do so at a price that will not only all the support it has been receiving, but a large and substantial increase of popular favor.

It seems by the "stirring address" published in the Journal, that there is a strong desire on the part of certain democrats to have party lines drawn in the coming election in Crow Wing county. The democrats in this county have always held their share of the offices, and although the city is largely republican no division was ever made on account of political proclivities. If the line must be drawn the democrats are certainly welcome to what is left.

County Treasurer Nevers will leave for South Hampton, N. B. next Monday. His mother will accompany his home.

B. F. Patrick, a lumber dealer of Chicago, has been doing the summer resorts in the vicinity of Brainerd this week.

B. Heustis' day team took a lively turn up Front Street this morning. No damage except the loss of a hind wheel.

Miss Laura Dobner, a former teacher in the public schools here, is visiting friends in Brainerd. Her mother accompanies her.

They do say that Geo. Smith has been caught smiling at the girls as they pass by.

Robert Morton will have charge of the confectionery department of the excursion to Battle Lake.

The readjustment of post office salaries for 1887, just completed, cuts the Brainerd plant down from $2,000 to $1,700.

A merchant along a double store sang, "Willow, it willow, it willow." I said to him, "why are you pining the floor, Singing 'Willow, it willow, it willow'?" "Alas," he replied, "as he smothered his crew, 'I thought it was wiser to survive, And now I've no caten at all but the lies, Oh, Willow, it willow, it willow'."

Last Saturday afternoon a small barn belonging to J. H. Hallett, at the Indian trading post, caught fire by some accidental cause. A 25 pound keg of powder was stored in the barn and when it exploded it shattered the small building, and the explosion jarred the ground for fully ten blocks.

Delegates to the republican convention to be held at Brainerd on Wednesday the 30th inst., are advised to obtain receipts from the agents from whom they purchase tickets, which, with the certificate of attendance from the secretary of the convention will entitle him to receive free return transportation from J. A. Walker, ticket agent at Brainerd.

It seems by the "stirring address" published in the Journal, that there is a strong desire on the part of certain democrats to have party lines drawn in the coming election in Crow Wing county. The democrats in this county have always held their share of the offices, and although the city is largely republican no division was ever made on account of political proclivities. If the line must be drawn the democrats are certainly welcome to what is left.

Swede who's name was not learned, was knocked down near Northern Pacific Junction and robbed of $50 one night this week. No trace of the robber has been discovered.

Will Spencer, of King & Spencer, who passes most of his time at Brainerd, came over on Monday from that city and went out to Lake Mills Lake to look after his homestead.—Aitkin Age.

Our stock of Mens' Shoes is now (since the arrival of our late purchases) simply perfect. No such line can be found else where outside of the largest cities.

DAY & MEAGHER.

Rev. N. B. Kelly, being about to leave the city, wishes to dispose of his household goods. The goods are new, and consist of a variety of furnishings. Call at the residence, No. 13, Seventh street south.

A petition is in circulation asking the city council to have 7th street graded from Woodward street to the fair grounds. This work would come under the supervision of Street Commissioners Fogelson and Martin, as 7th street divides the two wards.

The evangelist preached a very pointed sermon at our joyal Geo. S., last Sunday night for misrepresenting to the Pioneer Press the condition of the revival meeting being held in this city. Col. Canfield may be "climbing the ladder slowly," but it is not the religious ladder according to Mr. Brown's theory.

For several months' past the Northern Pacific authorities have had painters at work renumbering all their cars, and they are not near through yet. The company has about 350 passenger and baggage cars, and something over 10,000 freight cars, from which will be seen at a glance that the work of renumbering them is no small undertaking. The cost, it is said, will amount to nearly $200,000.

The streets will soon be filled with red men disposing of blueberries. They will reap a harvest this year as the crop gives promise of an abundant yield, and will be ready to pick about the 15th of July. Brainerd is the principal shipping point for this fruit on the line of the Northern Pacific road, L. J. Cale having alone shipped 6,000 bushels to points east and west last season.

The republican caucus for the town of Oaklawn was held at the house of John Bradford, last Saturday afternoon, pursuant to call of Chairman Cameron. A motion was made and carried that John H. Bradford, be elected delegate to the county convention which convened in this city to-day. A republican committee for the ensuing year was appointed, as follows: S. W. Gray, H. Spalding and H. Doolan.

Rev. N. B. Kelly will preach his farewell sermon at the Congregational church Sunday evening. He has not fully decided on his future actions, but will remain in Minnesota for a time, having had invitations to visit two or three of the larger cities. Mrs. Kelly and children leave for Alliance, Ohio, Tuesday next. By the resignation of the reverend gentleman the church loses an excellent pastor and earnest and worker, and it is to be hoped that his place will not be long vacant.

A Pleasant Wedding.

JOHNSON—HAMLEN—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cale, at 9 p. m., June 23d, 1886, by the Rev. S. White, Frank B. Johnson and Miss Lenora Hamlin, both of this city.

The occasion above described was one of good cheer from beginning to end. The groom is well known to our citizens as a promising young man, a druggist by profession, and a whole-souled fellow, having friends by the score among his associates. The bride is a niece of L. J. Cale, the front street merchant, and has resided with her uncle in this city for the past four years; she is accomplished, handsome and a general favorite among her large circle of friends. Only the intimate friends of the family were invited to partake of the festivities. The parlors of Mr. Cale's residence were beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, a large arch having been erected at one end of the room, from which was suspended an artistically designed bell made of evergreens and entwined with flowers, and under which the couple took their position at precisely 9 o'clock, Rev. S. White pronouncing the ceremony which made them man and wife. The bride was dressed in brown sateen, and wore a bouquet of white lilies at the throat. The usual congratulations were given and received after the ceremony, after which an invitation to the dining room followed, where an elegant banquet was spread. The Brainerd band serenaded the couple from the sidewalk during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left on the 2:30 train for Mankato and Fairbault, where they will spend their honeymoon among their friends and relatives, returning to Brainerd July 6th, where they will make their future home. The following is a list of the presents tendered them:

Silver call bell and spoon holder, and set of silver spoons, Mr. and Mrs. N. McFadden.

Carving knife and fork and steel, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nutting.

Silver, gold lined, individual set, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thiel.

Silver and cut glass celery vase, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bivins.

ROYAL

After a bootblack had polished the boots of a gentleman who was rambling around the City Hall, it was discovered that the man had nothing less than a dollar bill, and the boy no more than 15 cents.

"I suppose you can get this changed?" suggested the man.

"Oh, yes."

"And you will find me when you come back?"

"Yes."

"But if I place this dollar in your hands will it not be a temptation to you to eat sticks?"

"I wouldn't steal no sick man as that," contemptuously replied the boy, "but for fear I might get a telegram and be called out of town in a hurry, I guess you'd better go along."

"My son, I think I can trust you. Go on your way."

"I was never deceived in a boy yet."

The boy started down Griswold street and did not return. The man did not wait, however. It was a busted Canadian back bill.—Detroit Free Press.
